

Fun Facts about the Czech Republic and Spain

Why do we need to know some fun facts about the exchange country?

Because it helps you understand some of the culture of the country and its history.

We can also have some  with it. You can also find out some interesting things about the country.

Fun facts pt.1 (Czech Republic)

The beer is big thing in Czechia - the Czech people drink the most beer in the world. Each Czech drinks in average 142 litres of beer every year.

Or like did you know that the Czech Republic has the most castle density in the world?

Fun facts pt.2 (Czech Republic)

The founder of Porsche was born in Czechia.

Neil Armstrong was the first person on the moon. But did you know that the first music that played on the moon was made by czech composer Antonín Dvořák?

How do you recognize a czech on a trip? Sandals with socks in it on his feet and schnitzels with bread for lunch.

Fun facts pt.3 (Czech Republic)

Czechia is one of the least religious countries in the world. About 80% of Czechs are atheists.

According to global peace index Czechia is 12th safest country in the world.

Fun facts pt. 4 (Prague edition)

Did you know that Prague has a LOT of fun facts? Like did you know that Prague is home to the second ugliest building in the world? (It's called Zizkov Tower).

They also have a fake Eiffel Tower. Petrin Tower is 4,5x smaller copy of Eiffel Tower. (Petrin tower is 64 meters high and Eiffel 300 m)

Fun facts pt.5 (Spain)

La tomatina is the biggest food fight festival in the world. They waste around 130 tons of tomatoes every year only by throwing them.

Barcelona is cataloged like the most beautiful city in the world, also have the sagrada familia that is a extraordinary cathedral, the construction started in 1882 and is still under construction to this day.

Fun facts pt.6 (Alicante/Benidorm)

Did you know that Alicante has been inhabited for about 7000 years?!? It's been inhabited by more than 5 cultures! (Greeks,Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Romans, Visigoths and Moors)

Did you know that average temperature in Alicante is 18 degrees celsius?

Did you know that Alicante is the eight-largest metropolitan area in the Spain.

Stereotype (Czech Republic)

They like beer, they have good sense of humour, they wear socks and sandals, they are often pessimistic.

Stereotype (Spain)

Everyone loves bullfighting, you can find paella practically everywhere, tapas are very common in Spanish bars, (mostly) everyone takes a mid afternoon nap (called a siesta)

Conclusion :

What have you learnt from this exchange?

Spanish pov: We have learnt that Prague public transport is free (if your under 15)

Czech pov: We have learnt to understand Spanish accent, better communicate with new people and get to know something about Spain.

And how are you going to take advantage of what you have learnt in the future?

Spanish pov: We are going to take advantage of what we've learnt by remembering that Czech people like socks and sandals(good gift)

Czech pov: We will have more topics to talk about with Spanish people, better understand them and communicate with them.

That's all Folks!