

EVENTS

Why is it important ?

The events in Prague and Spain hold significant cultural importance for our society.

These events serve as bridges between cultures, and they offer opportunities for cultural exchange.

Content

VELVET REVOLUTION

The Velvet Revolution refers to the peaceful transition of power in Czechoslovakia in 1989, led by defector groups like student activists. It marked the end of communist rule and led to the election of Václav Havel as president, symbolizing a shift towards democracy and freedom in the country.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE INDEPENDENT CZECH REPUBLIC

The separation of the Czech Republic from Slovakia took place on 1993. This event is very unique because there aren't many countries that separated peacefully.

Content

HISPANIC HERITAGE ON OCTOBER 12

We commemorate the arrival of Christopher Columbus to America in 1492 that marketed the meeting between Europe and America.

WINNER OF THE FOOTBALL MUNDIAL

Spain won the FIFA World Cup in 2010, held in South Africa. It was a historic moment for Spanish football, with a memorable victory over the Netherlands in the final, sealed by a goal from Andrés Iniesta in extra time .

What have you learnt from this exchange?

New cultures and new people from other countries.

And how are you going to take advantage of what you have learnt in the future?

Reflect on your experiences and identify the challenges you overcame while doing your most recent work.